Welcome by the chairs
We’re pleased to welcome you to Harokopio University, Athens in August for the Migration Conference. The 5th conference in our series, the 2017 Conference is probably the largest scholarly gathering on migration with a global scope. Human mobility, border management, integration and security, diversity and minorities as well as spatial patterns, identity and economic implications have dominated the public agenda and gave an extra impetus for the study of movers and non-movers over the last decade or so.

Throughout the program of The Migration Conference you will find various key thematic areas are covered by many colleagues coming from all around the world from Australia to Canada, China to Mexico, South Africa to Finland.

We are also proud to bring you opportunities to meet with some of the leading scholars in the field. Our line of keynote speakers include Saskia Sassen, Oded Stark, Giuseppe Sciortino, and Neli Esipova.

The Migration Conference also offers training and development opportunities and participants are encouraged to register for workshops. Dilek Cindoğlu will be running a workshop on grounded theory while Jeffrey H. Cohen and Ibrahim Sirkeci will be leading the meet the editors session.

As usual we allow significant time to focus on the host country migration debates. Apostolos Papadopoulos, co-chair of the Conference will moderate the roundtable debate on Migration / Refugee Crisis and its Aftermath: Challenges for migration policy in Greece in the evening of the opening day.

We have maintained over the years, a frank and friendly environment where constructive criticism foster scholarship while being nice improves networks and quality of the event. We hope to continue with this tradition and you will enjoy the Conference and Athens during your stay. On the website, we have provided some key information about travel and tourism in Athens too.

Finally we welcome any comments and questions. Please do not hesitate to get in touch with us through the conference email (migrationscholar@gmail.com).

Ibrahim Sirkeci, Apostolos Papadopoulos and Jeffrey Cohen

She frequently shares insights from her research with international audiences and has presented at numerous well-being, gender, migration, positive psychology and leadership conferences. Esipova is the coauthor of more than 100 published articles. As Director of Global Migration Research, Neli has been published in Migration Letters, the IOM migration research series, and she led the team that wrote the main chapter of IOM 2013 annual World Migration Report and IOM-Gallup report, How the World Views Migration, in 2015. She also led the team that wrote the 2017 ILO-Gallup report, Towards a better future for women and work: Voices of women and men.”

Yüksel Pazarkaya is renowned Turkish novelist from Germany. Pazarkaya, born in Izmir in 1940, and moved to Germany to study at Stuttgart University, where he also worked as an assistant and lecturer between 1966 and 1979. He was a director of Turkish broadcasts at WDR Cologne Radio from 1986 to 2003. Pazarkaya won several literary awards in Germany and Turkey. He is considered as one of the most famous first-generation writers of the gastarbeiter literature. “Pazarkaya, who writes in Turkish and German and publishes in both countries, is seen as one of the pioneers of Turkish Deutschland literatur. His volume of poems Irrwege (Wrong Tracks, published in 1968) is one of the first literary explorations of the problems of foreign workers. The author went to Germany as a student in 1957 and witnessed the Turkish labour migration that started on a large scale in the 1960s. Confrontation with the extreme discrimination experienced by Turkish people motivated him to analyse his own image of Germany.” (Sabine Fischer, in Encyclopaedia of Contemporary German Culture edited by John Sandford).
